

9.06. Day 1. Arrival

10.06. Day 2. Theme: What do I do when I do research

- 10 Walking through Riga 'intersections' to the university
- 12 --13 Lunch
- 13 – 14.30 Welcome, presentation of the participants
Programme.
Working methods of the week
Formation of small groups
Coffee
- 15–17 Group work I (JV): What do you do when you do research?
What do you do when you analyze? What do you do when you do theoretical and conceptual work? Reporting as a powerpoint presentation
- 17–18 Discussion on readings
- 18 Dinner

11.06. Day 3 Theme: Methodological vocabulary for use

- 9–12 Jaana Vuori (Finland). Lecture and discussion: Methodological vocabulary for use 1
- 12-13 - Lunch
- 13–16 Sanja Potkonjak (Croatia). Contingencies of feminist epistemology.
Group work based on readings.
- 16 –18 Group work : Analytical approaches and frames: tell and ask!
- 18 - Dinner

12. 06. Day 4 Theme: Teaching interdisciplinarity and intersectionality in gender studies – theoretical and methodological challenges

- 9–12 Taina Kinnunen (Finland). Construction of competitive working bodies - an intersectional approach to diverse interview materials. Discussions based on readings
- 12–13 Lunch

13–16 Time for individual work for advancing the description of own research setting

Coffee

Group discussions: my own research setting revisited

16–18 Aivita Putniņa (Latvia) Gender and Biotechnologies: Advancing Notions of Power, Domination and Intersection of Inequalities

18 - Dinner

13.06. Day 5 Theme: Feminist epistemologies

9–12 Ankica Čakardić (Croatia). Feminist political economy and Marxist feminist philosophy. Group work based on readings

12–13 Lunch

13–15 Workshop, short presentations based on own research

Coffee

15.30–18 Possibility for individual discussions with teachers ('my own research setting')

18 Dinner

14.06. Day 6 Theme: Feminist epistemologies II

9-12.30 Guest lecture. Aija Lulle. (Finland-Latvia) Shifting notion of a neoliberal mother: narratives of Latvian migrant women making lives between Latvia and UK

Guest lecture. Alina Žvinkliene (Lithuania). Women and national recognition: interpretation of the gender-based index

12–13 Lunch

13–15 Guest lecture. Gatis Šmits. (Latvia) Lecture title pending.

Coffee

15.30–17.30 Feedback of the week I /Moodle, discussion

18 Dinner

15.06. Day 7. Exploring Riga's intersectional identity

Arrival of rest of the teachers

16.06. Day 8. Theme: Transnational gender studies I

9–10.30 Opening, students' self-presentations based on week I, self-presentations of teachers

10.30–12 Natka Badurina (Italy). Methodology of comparative literature and the question of untranslatability.

12–13 Lunch

13–16 Workshop, presentations based on own research (6) (30 minutes/students)

16 – 16.30 Coffee

16.30–18 Guest lecturer. Renata Sukaityte (Lithuania). Transdisciplinary Approaches to Dealing with Cinematic Transnationalism (The Case Studies of the Baltic Films)

17.06. Day 9. Theme: Transnational gender studies II

9 –10.30 Eva Slesingerova (Czech Republic). Posthumanism, gender, race – encounters and intersections.

10.30–12.30 Workshop, presentations based on own research (3 presentations)

12.30–13.30 Lunch

13.30–15.30 Workshop, presentations based on own research (4 presentations)

Coffee

16– 18 Sergia Adamo (Italy). Paradigms in gender Studies.
Discussions based on readings.

18 Dinner

18.06. Day 10. Theme: Travelling theories

9–12 Laura Assmuth (Finland). Asymmetries of gender and generation on a post-Soviet borderland: transnational research encounters Group work based on readings.

12–13 Lunch

13–16 Workshops, presentations based on own research (6 students)

Coffee break.

16.30-18 Anna-Leena Toivanen (Finland). Intertwining the Local with the Global: New Cosmopolitanisms in Contemporary African Women's Writing. Group work based on readings.

18 - Dinner

19.06. Day 11.

Theme: Affect and intersectionality

9–11 Jaana Kuusipalo (Finland). Affect and political representation.

11-12.30 - Workshop, presentations based on own research (3)

12.30–13.30 Lunch

Theme: Intersectionality in the Study of Masculinities

13.30-15.30 Iva Smidova (Czech Republic). Men and masculinities: powerful and disempowered. Discussions based on reading

Coffee

16-18 Workshop, presentations based on own research (4 students)

18 Party

20.06. Day 12. Theme: Intersectionality and Narrative

9-12 Elisabetta Vezzosi (Italy). Intersectionality and redefinition of gender history. Discussions based on readings.

12–13 Lunch– coffee

13–15 Aurelija Novelskaite (Lithuania). Doing Gender through Language. Discussions based on readings

15-16.30 Irina Novikova. Intersecting Gender and Race as Entertainment Narratives

16.30 - 18 Coffee

Teachers: evaluation of the course and preparing feedback for the students

Feedback of the course, future plans

21.06. Day 13. Travelling home

